ISLAMORADA (Florida Keys) – One of the 15 offshore teams in the inaugural Blazing Mako Bonfire Tournament & Festival, June 17-19, will enhance their chances of winning by bidding on Capt. Bouncer Smith to be their guide.

The IGFA Legendary Captains Auction is underway for the Father’s Day weekend Bonfire Series event at the historic Islander Resort, a Guy Harvey Outpost in Islamorada, MM 82.1 Oceanside. The Blazing Mako tournament, named for Nova Southeastern University’s \(NSU\) mascot — the mako shark —will include offshore and inshore divisions. Offshore team registration for the non-profit tournament is $5,000 per team of six anglers. Inshore registration is $2,500 for three anglers.

To register as an angler, please visit guyharveyoutpost.com/blazing-mako/fishing.

The Bonfire Series was first spirited two years ago in the Bahamas by world-renowned conservationist and artist Dr. Guy Harvey. It has a targeted goal of $100,000 for marine science scholarships at NSU’s Halmos College of Natural Sciences and Oceanography, which houses the Guy Harvey Research Institute.

“Once again NSU and Guy Harvey are teaming up to help today’s students become tomorrow’s marine researchers and scientists,” said Richard Dodge, Ph.D., Dean of NSU’s Halmos ...read more
