Guy Harvey Outpost Collection Now Offering Photo/Fishing Safari Adventure to The Galapagos Islands

FT. LAUDERDALE, Fla.— Guy Harvey Outpost Collection announces a unique photo safari (with optional fishing) adventure to experience the Galapagos Islands with world-acclaimed photographer Ron Modra.

Unlike most trips to the Galapagos that confine visitors to a mother ship or to a rigid excursion schedule, this trip offers maximum freedom to explore the Galapagos Islands and photograph the abundant wildlife while also receiving hands-on tips and guidance from world-class outdoor photographer Ron Modra.

The itinerary calls for visits to five (5) different islands in the Galapagos archipelago, including some of Ron Modra's favorite locations. The trip includes exceptional accommodations, daily photography workshops and transfers in the Galapagos, exclusive activities, snorkel excursions and meals. World-class fishing for marlin, tuna and wahoo can be added to the itinerary.

As a special incentive, Ron Modra's close personal friend and country music superstar Ronnie Dunn will join the group.

"I get as much satisfaction and enjoyment from photography as I do stepping on stage," said Dunn recently. "I really do! I've steadily kept a camera in my hand over the years and now I can almost get off a decent picture. I'm ready to take it to the next level."

Dunn has put his camera to work in many scenic spots, including Africa and Santa Fe, New Mexico. This will be his first trip to the Galapagos but not the first time he has worked with Ron Modra.

"Getting to follow Ron around with a camera is like learning to paint with Picasso," he says. "I've taken this as far as I can with trial and error. I want to make this trip and get his feedback right away. That's how you learn to use a camera."
